State Convention

The Convention met on time and adjourned promptly after the work and speeches had been finished. It was a Glass Convention and all delegates seemed anxious to hear the Junior Senator. His speech was an arraignment of the Republican party and was cheered vociferously. He was unanimously endorsed for President and the delegates were so instructed. Norfolk knows how to entertain a crowd and those who attended speak in loud praise of the great seaport city's hospitality.

There were several contests to be decided, the one from Cumberland attracted most attention One delegation headed by R. O. Garrett was seated by the State Committee, but the delegation headed by Donald McRae appealed to the Credential Committee of the Convention and the Garrett delegation was unseated and the McRae delegation seated. Mrs. Haga a former Appomattox lady was among the seated delegates. The charge against the organization headed by Garrett was that no proper notice of the meeting had been given before the election of delegates to the State Convention.

Col. Terrell, Supt. Twyman, Treasurer Anderson and Jim Andrews were live members of the Buckingham delegation. Neither Buckingham or Cumberland were honored by any gifts from the 10 district, while Appomattox got a delegate to the Convention and a member of the State Committee in the person of Senator S. L. Ferguson. Cumberland and Buckingham have always been strong Tucker counties.

A resolution offered by O. B. Harvey of Clifton Forge, designed to effect a recrudescence of the convention form of nomination in doubtful districts, was the chief bone of contention at the Tenth Congressional district meeting. After delegate Thos. Whitehead, of Amherst, in a firey speech defending the primary plan, in which he characterized more than 800 Democrats of Appomattox as scrubheads and disgruntles — Mr. Clement, a spectator from Appomattox denied the statement, and the meeting adjourned without a vote. It is not believed, however, there is sentiment for a convention this side of the mountain.

Its advocates, who largely were from Botetourt, Craig, Allegheny and Bath counties, advocated it as a means of strengthening the party. Its opponents declared that the change contemplated would not be popular with voters in their sections and that it was unnecessary, inasmuch as the state party rules permitted nominating either by primary or convention.

A resolution applauding Congressman Harry St. George Tucker "for his notable efforts to prevent the encroachment of the Federal government upon the functions that belong to the several states" was unanimously adopted.

With W. H. East of Augusta, presiding, the 124 district delegates chose the following delegates, each to have one-half vote to the National Democratic convention: Hugh B. Sproul of Augusta, Dr. W. N. Breckenridge of Botetourt, S. L. Ferguson of Appomattox, B. A. Burgess of Fluvanna. The following were named as alternates: Mrs. F. Cleveland Davis of Rockbridge, Miss Helen McNamara of Botetourt, Mrs. W. K. Allen of Amherst, and Mrs. Joseph Button of Appomattox.

W. K. Allen of Amherst was chosen elector.

The following were named to serve on the state central committee: W. A. Pratt, H. H. Byrd, H. E. Meeks, Mrs. F. Cleveland Davis, Mrs L.P. Whitehead, S. L. Ferguson and John Fitzpatrick.

The following representatives to committees of the state convention were named:

Resolutions—Hon. Henry St. George Tucker, Willis Robertson, Thomas Whitehead and Mrs. A. R. Jennings.

Permanent organization — A. E. Strode, J. P. Andrews, L. W. H. Peyton, Mrs. W. W. King.

Credentials—W. G. W. Layman, E. B. Jones. P. R. Evans and Miss Nettie M. Moses.

Senator Glass was declared the nominee for Senator and Leston H. Hogker the nominee for Corporation Commission.

The Convention was generally harmonious, and endorsed the administration of Governor Trinkle.

The old organization is said to have been given a good greasing (not oiling) and runs things as smoothly as ever.

The people all over the State are unanimous in choice for Senator Glass for president.

Garretts Refused New Trial

Robert O. Garrett and his brother, Larkin C. Garrett, principals in the sensational slaying of Rev. E. S. Pierce, are face to face with prison sentence, the Virginia supreme court of appeals having overruled their petitions for writs of error.

The court decision was reached Monday. They will go to prison June 24 to begin their sentences, unless unexpected developments occur.

Robert O. Garrett, clerk of the Cumberland County Court, was sentenced to five years imprisonment in the penitentiary after being found guilty of second degree murder, while Larkin C. Garrett received a term of four years for voluntary manslaughter.

Pierce was shot to death in the front yard of the Baptist parsonage at Cumberland, June 5th, 1923. Subsequent developments and the trial of the two Garretts were sensational in their nature and attracted wide attention and able counsel on each side.

The Amherst Ewe Era and Progress for thirty years owned by Hon. C. J. Campbell has passed into the hands of Lawyer Shrader, Treasurer Joyner and Stockman Howl. Judge Campbell succeeded the editor of this paper on the New Era, and we regret that his health forces him to give up the journalistic field. The young men who succeeded him are full of energy, clean and reliable and we bespeak for them cordial support and co-operation from an appreciative public. It is our fortune to know all these young men and it is with pleasure that we welcome them into the fourth estate.

It costs a fellow $3 now exclusive of other red-tape requisites to marry the girl of his adoration. Everything is taxed now except the old setting hen and the Legislature has evil designs on her.

Federal Reserve Bank of this district has reduced its discount rate to 4 per cent. This offers but little relief to the farmers unless he happens to have collateral as security.

There can be no escape now for the bootlegger or distiller if he is caught with the goods.

Dillwyn's Officers.

In the election held at Dillwyn for town officers Claude R. Wood defeated Dr. J. H. Mitchell for Mayor by a majority of twenty-one. The following were elected members of the Council: A. W. Carter, W. S. White, B. A. Seay, Lucy E. Carter, Florence Holman and Lola I. Jameson.

Nearly 2000 citizens of Appomattox have paid the poll tax and qualified to vote in November election, provided they get registered.

A. M. Beak

Mr. Beak, one of Halifax's good farmers, and the father of Mrs. W. R. Reynolds of this place, died at his home in Halifax county Sunday, in the 65th year of his age. Mrs. Reynolds was too ill to attend his burial. Deceased was reared in Pittsylvania county, where he was highly esteemed.

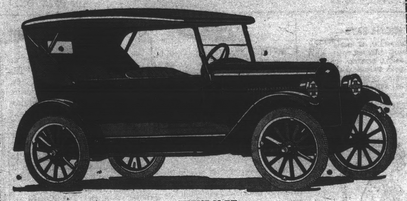
Health Insurance for the Whole Family


CHEVROLET
Without counting the daily utility of a Chevrolet for going back and forth to work, shopping or taking the children to school, etc., its value in saving doctor's bills, broadening your mental horizon and keeping the whole family physically fit, amounts to more than the cost of the car and its upkeep. It is more of an essential to the modern family than anything else but a home. Chevrolet meets the requirements of the modern family because it is economical to buy and maintain, because of its excellent appearance and riding comfort, because it can be depended upon, and because it is so easy to drive that any member of the family can use it.

William Arthur McDearmon

Was found dead in his car at Reusens about 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, death resulting from heart trouble. He was apparently in good health and seemed unusually bright and cheerful when he left his home, in Rivermont, for work and drove to Reusens, where he was agent for the C. & O. He reached the garage and put his car in and pulled the brake, but fell dead over the wheel before he stopped the engine. A passerby noticed the continual noise of the motor, went in and found him dead.

Deceased was a son of W. J. McDearmon of Evergreen. who survives him together with his wife, who was Miss Mary Lizzie Farrar of Evergreen, and four children: Lyle, Marion, William and Bernard McDearmon, of Lynchburg, and three sisters: Mesdames S. M. Thornton Evergreen, N. E. Farrar Pamplin, and E. H. Cawthorn Brookneal, three brothers, Lacey M. McDearmon of Monvale, J. D. McDearmon Pamplin, and C. S. McDearmon of this place. Deceased has many friends here where he was operator about 12 years ago, when he moved to Lynchburg and accepted work at Reusens, about 4 miles out of that city.

Furieral service was conducted at the Presbyterian church at Evergreen today at 1:30 by Dr. Gilmer of Lynchburg, and interment at Liberty cemetery here.

Lucye Garland Nowlin

Miss Lucye Garland Nowlin died at her home here Sunday in the 31st year of her age. She was the daughter of Mrs. Emma C Nowlin, who survives her, also the following sisters: Mesdames, Walker W. O'Brien, Walter L. Coleman, James N. Phelps, James H. Lucarlo, of this county; Earnest W. Austin, of Winston-Salem, N. C., and Chester H. Manley, of Richmond.

Her remains were buried at the family burying ground, at Lemuel Mitchell's Monday.

Deceased had been sick for about three years and had been confined to her bed for 22 months.

She was a splendid young lady and had many friends here who regret her death.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends for their many expressions of sympathy and kindness during the illness and death of our daughter and sister, Miss Lucye Garland Nowlin, also for the beautiful floral offerings.
